February 2021 mid-month News You Can Use

“Who poured the grape juice into this cup and left it on the counter?” I asked. Much of the grape juice had seeped out of the now half-full paper cup and had stained the countertop.

I’m sorry,” confessed my daughter Tina, “I poured it last night and then the phone rang, and I forgot all about it. I’ll clean it up.” After much scrubbing Tina was finally able to wash away almost all of the purple stain. But a faint purple spot served as an enduring reminder of her mistake. Tina and I discovered that paper cups are not designed to hold liquids for long periods of time. Eventually the paper cup becomes saturated and weak, allowing the contents to seep through.

That incident with the paper cup led me to think about the blessings that God gives me. In Psalm 23 David wrote, “My cup runneth over.” I believe he was referring to God’s blessings of hope, peace, strength, and comfort that he richly bestows on us.

God wants us to use our blessings to give him glory, to benefit ourselves and others, and as a witness to others of his grace in Christ. They are not to lie dormant and unused. If we don’t use our muscles, they become weak to the point that we can’t use them. The same is true of God’s blessings. Like the grape juice seeping out of the paper cup, our unused blessings may eventually disappear.

The man in Jesus’ parable in Matthew 25 who hid his talent rather than use it was condemned and punished by his master. His greed and mistrust were sins that stained his soul. If we don’t use our blessings as God intends, they may disappear. And nothing will remain but a stain on our soul.

Through His Holy Word, God is constantly filling our cup with his blessings of love, peace, joy, forgiveness, strength, meaning, and hope. In John 4 Jesus said to the woman at the well, “Whoever drinks of the water I give him shall never thirst. Indeed, the water I give them will become in them a spring of water welling up to eternal life.” As we use the blessings of God’s grace, we don’t have to worry that our cup will ever run dry. For, God is continually refilling it!

Neither Tina nor I ever again filled a paper cup and left it on the counter overnight. I pray that this lesson always reminds me to never neglect to use and share my cup full of blessings. If I do occasionally neglect to use them as God intends, I have the assurance that any stains on my soul are completely washed away by His grace in Christ. And, as I again use them as God intends, He will make sure my cup never runs dry. Rev. Jeff Harter

Pray For Our Central Illinois District Missions supported by your church’s Mission Dollars to the District. “Finally, brothers, pray for us, that the Word of the Lord may spread rapidly and be honored.” Please remember in your prayers all of the LCMS pastors, deaconesses, and lay ministers that serve in health care settings and prisons as professional chaplains or as volunteers. These front-line workers are often exposed to the same dangers of infection and illness as the nurses and doctors are.
